

Ongoing Formation Advisory Committee

Actions

- Lyn will solicit invitations and recommendations for programming to include in-person sessions, webinars, books, articles, etc. Lyn will initially reach out to WRC members, and will share solicitation with LCWR 9, 8, and 10 leadership for consideration of distribution through their list-servs. Ellen will send a flyer for the upcoming Advent webinar for posting.
- Lyn will develop a section of the WRC website to post these invitations and recommendations curated by type and topic. These postings will be freely available to anyone online. Lyn also will post a solicitation on the home page of the WRC website for additional invitations and recommendations.
- The Ongoing Formation Advisory Committee will begin development of a 2020 ongoing formation program. This program will be made available to WRC members and to others who wish to subscribe to the program. Next steps in developing a 2020 Ongoing Formation Program:
  - Structure
    - Quarterly streaming speaker with local discussion guides, off months have a webinar or reading with discussion guide. (Need to test streaming capabilities and other tech.)
  - Topics
    - Focus on grieving, loss, change, community living, and build these around the liturgical calendar.
  - Thoughts on speakers, webinars, books, articles to include:
    - Tara Maya, Ellen recommend via connection at CTU, MaryAnne Zollman, CLWR past president, Patrice Rog sending bibliography of books on spiritual life, Patrice recommend and connect to Diane Burgant
    - Lyn will propose editorial calendar and start to make contacts with recommendations
