

RCRI 2021 Conference Proposal

Submitted: 1/15/21

Submitted by: Wisconsin Religious Collaborative (WRC) Executive Director Lyn Korte and WRC Board of Directors

Audience: Religious institute leadership as well as administration professionals

Session Title: Better Together: Religious Institutes Reap Benefits from Collaboration

Session Description: Executive Director Lyn Korte will present an update on the Wisconsin Religious Collaborative, with XX and XX sharing case studies of how these activities have benefited their institutes with specific examples. After the presentation and case studies, the three presenters will discuss learnings and open questions, then participate in an open Q&A session with the audience.

Conclusion and Takeaways: Attendees will take away examples of how collaboration across institutes can drive efficiencies, serve community members, and develop deep connections for information sharing and support.

Payment or reimbursement: Donation to Wisconsin Religious Collaborative would be appreciated.

Lyn Korte Bio: After a 20-plus year career in professional publishing, Lyn Korte joined the American Society for Quality leadership team. She is an experienced public speaker and earned the Certified Association Executive (CAE) designation in 2017. Lyn joined WRC as executive director in January 2019 and participated in the panel session Canonical Governance Options and Possibilities for Collaboration at the virtual RCRI conference in 2020.

XX Bio

XX Bio
