

Sex Trafficking Indicators, Assessment, and Provider Response Training

Presenter:

Anna C. Pederson, M.S.

Doctoral Student, Counseling Psychology
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Description: This training will address evidence-based sex trafficking indicators and best practices for assessing for sex trafficking. We will address various strategies for responding to suspected or confirmed sex trafficking among young people (e.g., harm reduction, contacting Child Protective Services). Attendees will gain knowledge and skills that can be applied in practice.
